NEWSLETTER

NOVEMBER 2024

OUR VALUES Community

Building strong connections and fostering a supportive environment

Compassion

Offering empathertic and individualized care for each person

Empowerment

Equipping individuals with the tools anad knowledge for sustaainaable recovery

Innovation

Continuously evolving our approach and embaracing best practices

Integrity

Upholding the highest ethical standards and being accountable to our community

Upcoming

THANKSGIVING TURKEY DRIVE

We need items to make a delicious turkey dinner for our staff and patients on Thanksgiving! Spread the word. People interested in donating must contat the office by November 20.

GIVING TUESDAY
December 3

CHRISTMAS STOCKING STUFFER

We need donated stockings and items to stuff those stockings for those in recovery this Christmas season

COMMUNITY SHOUTOUT

A special THANK YOU to Lucky Bamboo Chinese Restaurant for donating lunches to our patients every Wednesday!

Employee Highlight

JOSHUA SYLVA

Josh is the admissions coordinator and a friend to all who come in contact with him! He is a hard worker and amaazing under pressure. He is a "top of the line" employee and Hope in the Valley is lucky to call him a part of the family!

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE SPORTS TEAM?

Atlanta Falcons

WHAT INSPIRED YOU TO JOIN THE COMPANY?

I have an older brother that struggled with substance abuse in his younger years, I saw how it affected him and our family. I also saw him go through recovery and do the work to end his addiction, he is now flourishing in his life as a Regional Maintenance Supervisor for a major apartment complex all over the South East of the United States. His experiences inspired me to help others in need struggling with substance abuse

DO YOU HAVE ANY KIDS?

Yes, I am the father of 4 amazing son's, Jamear (15), Jayden (12), Jovanni (4), and Josiah (3).

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE PART ABOUT YOUR JOB?

Helping those in need, getting them appropriately placed within our available programs and reassuring the clients and their families that they are in the right place for the help they need.

It's OK to reach out for HELP.

Remember, you are never alone. Asking for help is a sign of strength and there is a large community to surround you or the person you love so we all can make informed, healthy choices to transform our lives.